Oscar went to live to US in 2010 during his internship in PENN University of Philadelphia. Once there he found job and he extend his stay in Philadelphia. During this 4 years he met Elrey.

I've been talking with him and visit him during this 4 years and I met Elrey too. They are living together and they are the sweetest couple I ever met. I'm talking with them through skype at least 3 times per week. The last time I spent time with them was the last Christmas, they went to Manresa (Spain) to celebrate Christmas with Oscar's family.
