Relationship to Oscar and Elrey: Friends

To Whom It May Concern;

Our family first met Oscar at 18 years of age during an exchange program from Spain. We became friends immediately. Oscar is like that, warm, caring and open. Our family treated him like another son. He has spent time at our home in New Jersey and we have met his family in Spain. Over the years Oscar has pursued life in America: He attend college at University of Pennsylvania, living and working in the city, moving into adulthood here in the States. Along his journey he met Elrey. Elrey was introduced to us 2 years ago Thanksgiving, as he and Oscar joined our family for dinner. It was the first time Oscar introduced us to someone very special in his life. What a perfect fit, Elrey is also kind and warm. Together in our kitchen they prepared a side dish to go along with the big Thanksgiving dinner. We chatted at dinner, learning more about Elrey and his life in Philadelphia, and his passion for dance. We knew Elrey would be an important person in Oscar's life. Another year passed and again they joined us for Thanksgiving dinner in 2013. Once more they prepared food in our kitchen, working together, and this time I could see how close they had become, it felt like a perfect match, as I think Oscar knew all along.

Oscar proposed to Elrey this year and he accepted. They will make a great couple!
